

Hoosier Hospitality Awards

2006 Lieutenant Governor's Hoosier Hospitality Awards Request for Nomination

Do you know someone who personifies Hoosier Hospitality? Who, in your community, consistently goes out of their way to make visitors feel good about their visit to Indiana?

It's time again to recognize front-line staff at Indiana's museums, inns, attractions, restaurants, and visitor centers, and show them how much they mean to us and Indiana's tourism industry.

Awards will be presented by Lt. Gov. Becky Skillman in the Statehouse Capitol Rotunda during Enjoy Indiana Week, May 13-21.

Please take a moment to nominate the person you feel makes tourism a success in your community. These awards are intended for front-line service people such as wait or housekeeping staff and desk clerks. Photocopied nomination forms can be used for multiple nominations, and distribution of this form to other tourism constituents is encouraged.

The deadline for nominations is Friday, April 14, 2006. Press releases with images will be distributed in each award recipient's county. The Indiana Office of Tourism Development (IOTD) will also send a statewide release to the media.

For more information about the Lieutenant Governor's Hoosier Hospitality Awards, call Angela Hurley, Public Relations Manager, IOTD, 317.233.0611, or ahurley@enjoyindiana.in.gov.
